With a refurbished web site and a host of additional features, an invigorated Special-Credit.com prepares to do what it does best - help people with loans.

Aquebogue, NY February 10, 2005 -- Special-Credit.com, a dedicated full service mortgage and credit-counseling site, has launched its redesigned web site, incorporating a host of newly added features and a more professional look than ever before.

"Our new look is designed specifically with our customers in mind, to guide them ever more efficiently and effectively through our range of services and loans," says Vicky Delgado of Special-Credit.com (<http://www.special-credit.com>). "The redesign, in fact, fits in wonderfully with our own goal of providing the best possible service to our customers for their complete satisfaction."

Special-Credit.com specializes in helping individuals and families with bad credit in obtaining loans, matching the individual mortgage needs of customers with the lowest interest rates available. Among Special-Credit.com's array of services are student loans, auto and motorcycle loans, home equity loans, refinance loans, facilities for debt consolidation and credit repair.

The newly redesigned web site of Special-Credit.com, apart from extensively cataloging and explaining its various services, also uses its seven years of experience in the credit market to host a range of useful on-site features. These include Mortgage FAQs and tips, a glossary of terms, a Repayment Mortgage Calculator, a showcase of selected mortgage self-help books and a LiveHelp chat facility.

"These features have been designed solely with our customers in mind, and they've been born out of our experience in the arena of mortgage and our deep knowledge of our customers' requirements," says Delgado. "With our redesigned web site now in place, we at Special-Credit.com will now plunge even more enthusiastically into providing our customers with the financial services they need."
